Membership fees

Or Chadasch receives no public funds and therefore relies on membership fees and donations to finance the rabbi and the operation and maintenance of the synagogue.

Your membership will enable you to serve a wide range of religious and social ministries, including celebrating all Jewish festivals, notably Shabbat, life-cycle events, and a variety of cultural and social activities.

For members, the participation in lectures and shiurim as well as the use of the library and the borrowing of the books are free of charge. Furthermore, members are entitled to a discount on the tickets for the services on the High Holidays and the Seder. You will receive regular information about all activities and events of Or Chadasch.
